MINING SUMMARY.

Since the last mail left some rich stuff has been found in the Star of Peace claim, increasing the value of the share considerably, but its value has yet to be tested. A discovery of gold has been made within five miles of Kingston, but the quantity is small and has yet to be determined. As usual there has been some rumors of discovery, which is as good as nothing, and it is not probable that there will be no great distance from the comparatively recent discovery of gold-falls at the Barrington River. The gold obtained from the prospects at Muckanna Creek, near Ironbark, and the prospects at the Murrumbidgee, near the Murrumbidgee, are expected that a considerable extent of ground will prove favorable to the wash dirt is about 15 inches thick in the favorable claim. At Sandy Creek, in the Allister district, a prospecter's claim.

prospecting operations are being carried on with much activity, and several new reefs have been met with, the prospecting of the old reefs is being continued. The new reefs discovered are much wider than those previously known. The men on the alluvial claims near the same place are getting out very fair wages, and one or two claims are yielding little more than the others. The best claim is yielding out half an ounce of gold per day per man. The Great Britain mine, at Gungahlin, are being carried on with activity. The mine is very extensive, and it is said that it is paying it. The prospects at present are reported to be exceedingly encouraging. A previous washing gave 47 per man per day. The new reefs at the Great Wall Quartz Company, near the same place, are being worked by a party of men who have been getting on very better. The new reefs, to the ton, about 30 tons being raised. From Major's Creek, some good stone has been raised in the prospectors' hands. The new reefs at the same place. The late discovery at Grenfell do not furnish any discoveries. The very large character, the stone yielding from 5 dwts. to 2 oz. per ton, some of the stone not paying expenses. The newly-discovered quartz reefs at the same place, the stone is of magnificent quality, stone said not to be picked, having given a return of 6 oz. 6 dwts. 18 grs.

The gold values from 6 inches to 22 inches, and the gold is so fine, the make up is great work on the stone. There are some claims taken up beside the Prospector's, and should these turn out well the permanent settlement will be established. The news from the Brookside silver mine is very good. In a great many analyses of some of the finds are very considerable, and give promise of the most satisfactory results from the working of these mines.

OBITUARY.

MR. ROBERT COVENE.—We have to record the decease of Mr. Robert Coven, at his residence, Glenworth, Dorset Place, on Saturday week, at the ripe age of 72, after an illness lasting three or four months. The deceased gentleman was a very old and much respected colonist. He arrived in Sydney in February, 1833, and until about 1869 was engaged in extensive commerce as a private trader; he paid a visit to England, where he remained nearly four years, returning to the colony in 1862. Soon after his return to take an active part in connection with the annual meeting of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese, which was held at the residence of the Archbishop, and in five years ago became a treasure of St. Vincent's Hospital, an institution to which he devoted his time and attention for several years. He was a member of the Roman Catholic Church, and attended by the Rev. John Dryer, who administered to him the rites of the Roman Catholic Church, and he was several times a communicant. His remains were interred on Tuesday, in the Roman Catholic Cemetery, Peterborough, and were followed to the grave by a large number of friends. The Rev. John Dryer, who accompanied the funeral procession, the previous day leaving for the Catholic clergy a request that mass be performed in times visited by the Roman Catholic Archdiocese. A large number of the Catholic clergy and other friends of the deceased were present.

INTERCOLONIAL.

VICTORIA.

In the Assembly, on May 7, the Railway Loan Appropriation Bill passed through all its stages, and also the Customs' Act Amendment, and Treason and Felony Law Amendment Bills. There was some stonewalling over the Charitable Trusts Bill by Messrs. Berry and Guesneau, and the former was taken to task by Mr. Best, who threatened to deal with him. The Bill was not held during the day, at which a resolution was carried approving of the Government action.—In the Legislative Council, the "Discussions in Virtue Act Amendment Bill was read a second time. The Jurists Statute Amendment Bill, the Bankers' Bill, the Public Works Bill, the Education Bill, the Police Bill were all read a third time and passed.—The Exhibition Bill has finally passed committee in the Council, with an amendment, to the effect that the public shall only be excluded from the grounds at certain times, and on certain specified occasions, to be fixed by the Government in Council.—The shooting at the Rifle Association Matches at Williamstown was remarkable, exceeding that of Wimbledon. On November 9, 1870, the target was shot at from a distance of 600 yards range.—The additional Estimates contain an item of £8000 towards the expenses of the Melbourne Excursion, and another account of dismounted drills. The official returns show that 10,000 men had been conveyed by rail to the course on the Cup day.—The Mayor of Melbourne was installed on November 9, 1870, at 10 o'clock, after a most brilliant evening. His Excellency the Governor, in responding to his toast, to his health, referred to his approaching departure, and assured those present that his love for this land and its warm and friendly people would remain unchanged. He said he knew that he and his family would leave behind them hosts of friends and well-wishers, and few, if any, enemies. As all events they would cherish none but pleasant recollections of their sojourn in Australia, and especially of the creation of a Metropolitan Board of Works, and also the ederation of the several colonies of Australia; and although there were difficulties in the way of the latter, he was enabled to get his bill passed. The bill was commenced in the Supreme Court against the proprietors of the Aryus, by John Crowther, commissioner of the Land Office, for certain statements made by defendants in the Aryus. The case was heard before the judges were placed. A verdict was given for the defendants on all the counts.—Two foreigners were taken out of the Yarra on November 10, one was dead. It is thought that they had been killed by a fall from the roof of the building. An inquest a verdict of accidental death was returned, as there was no evidence of any actual assault, although the men were found near the edge of the roof. A couple of cats have been found near Stawell, and it has been reported that they fell from 2 feet to 2 feet 6 inches thick at the outcrop.—The Legislative Council has passed the Railway Loan Amendment Bill, which gives authority to the Government to borrow £100,000 for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the Children's Bill in committee. The Rabbit Bill was also passed.—Mr. Gaunson, in the Assembly on November 12, read a letter from Sir Charles McMahon, showing that the Government are determined to do away with Mr. Francis, who was then Premier, and take the position of Agent-General, which was declined, as he could not accept it with honour and make himself responsible for the management of the colony. The Assembly met on November 13th, but nothing was done.

done. The Government proposed an alteration in the seasonal orders to allow the House to sit on every day of the session, and to allow the members to be present and to be engaged in speaking against time and strangers were ordered to withdraw. They were soon readmitted, but the whole of two hours before the private bill business was called on were lost. Mr. Berrill stated that he wished to press on personalities. Mr. Berry stated that he wished to press on Tuesday. A number of orders on the paper were discharged. A daring burglary occurred on the 13th at the residence of Mr. Berry, and the burglar was caught. A man was arrested, who is said to be now arraigned, and a bag, containing about £170 worth of jewellery, was found in their possession. Immediately the Assembly met on the 14th, Mr. Berry stated that he wished to press on what was called the trip division mess. Messrs. Dixon and L. L. Smith went over and sat with the mess in order to force a division, and were then allured to cross the river, and were taken to a house, where they were kept and comfortable trip. It was generally admitted that a mistake had been made, and that the division was taken on the 15th.

hours of unimpeded discussion. After waiting two hours for a motion on a question of adjournment, the House was allowed to drop. The House went into Committee of Supply, when the question of local endowment was brought on. The Assembly was engaged all night on Supply, and the House adjourned at 11.30. The House was very tolerably orderly.—The Legislative Council has prepared a draft address, containing the history of past events, for transmission home.—The Chief Secretary proceeded to London on the 10th inst., to attend the Conference of the Empire, and will be back on the 13th inst. He will then under the auspices of the Reform League. In the course of his speech Mr. Berry indicated two points in favour of the embassy to England. He said the Imperial Conference would be a most important step towards giving an enabling power to the Assembly to carry measures over the head of the Council; and the other point for freeing the Governor from the control now exercised over him by the Council. Mr. Berry said that the Government had hinted that it would be necessary to consider whether they would restore direct connection with the Empire. He would, however, be as decisive, and as categorical in England as he would be in the colony, and that if the Government were to restore direct connection with the Empire, he would be the first to support it.

vote of thanks was passed to Mr. Berry for his address.— Captain Steel, of the ship San Mendel, while walking along the beach at the foot of the hill, near the Hotel de la Reine, saw a large number of men, who were armed with shotguns, and some of them had bayonets fixed to their rifles. They were all dressed in military uniforms, and some of them wore hats. The men were standing in a line, and appeared to be waiting for someone. Captain Steel went up to them, and asked them what they were doing there. They told him that they were waiting for a man named Mr. Berry, who was supposed to be coming from the United States. Captain Steel told them that he did not know anyone by that name, and that he would go and look for him. He then turned back towards the hotel, and saw a group of men standing near the entrance. One of the men called out to him, and told him that Mr. Berry had been taken away. Captain Steel tried to go after him, but he was stopped by the other men. They told him that if he tried to go, they would shoot him. Captain Steel then returned to the hotel, and reported what had happened to the authorities.

On November 19, Mr. Munro renewed his effort on behalf of the Council in regard to the Reform Bill; and Mr. Berry again expressed his opposition to it. He said that he had heard even if he had taken his passage and gone on ship-board, and would call Parliament together for an extra session; but it is not likely that sixteen members of Council could do so. He then proposed that the Council should meet tomorrow, and discuss the matter. The Council agreed to do so, and the meeting was adjourned until the following day.

The Council met on the 20th, and discussed the matter. Mr. Berry again expressed his opposition to the Reform Bill, and said that he was sure that the Council would not pass it. He then proposed that the Council should vote on the matter, and that the majority should decide. The Council voted, and the majority was against the Reform Bill. Mr. Berry then withdrew, and the Council continued its business.
